

Orienteering in Wimbledon Park

Anyone can try their map-reading skills on the permanent Orienteering Course now available in Wimbledon Park.

Use the map to find your way to the markers. These are wooden posts with the red and white orienteering symbol:

A marker will be found at the centre of each red circle on the map. The circles are numbered and you will know you are in the right place if the marker has the correct number. It will also have a letter which you can note down to prove that you were there.

Three suggested routes are shown below. They all start and finish at the café. Alternatively, select your own route, starting and finishing wherever you like.

These routes start and finish at the Café steps overlooking the tennis courts.

Short (0.5km)

1
2
3
4
5

Medium (1km)

18
17
9
8
2
3
6
5

Long (2km)

1
7
6
5
18
16
14
13
10
9

If you time yourself on any of these routes, and note down the letters, you can compare your time with others at:

www.sloweb.org.uk/poc/wptimes.htm

The website will also give you more information about orienteering and about your local club.